(the “Financial Institutions”) produce one or more corporate representatives for examination on a business day no earlier than fourteen (14) business days after the entry of an order granting this Motion, or at such other mutually agreeable location, date, and time, and continuing from day to day thereafter until completed.

This Motion is further explained in the following Memorandum.

Memorandum

The Litigation Trust seeks information concerning the Reorganized Debtors and their pre-bankruptcy acts, conduct, property, liabilities and financial condition. Specifically, the Litigation Trust seeks information concerning banking and financial services provided by each of the Financial Institutions to the Reorganized Debtors. The Litigation Trust seeks this information from the Financial Institutions to assist in the collection of the assets and the investigation of the liabilities of the Reorganized Debtors.

The requested discovery from the Financial Institutions is within the scope of examination permitted under Rule 2004, which includes:

[t]he acts, conduct, or property or . . . the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or . . . any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor’s estate, or to the debtor’s right to a discharge. In a . . . reorganization case under chapter 11 of the Code, . . . the examination may also relate to the operation of any business and the desirability of its continuance, the source of any money or property acquired or to be acquired by the debtor for purposes of consummating a plan and the consideration given or offered therefore, and any other matter relevant to the case or to the formulation of a plan.²

² FED.R. BANKR. P. 2004(b).

Conclusion

Accordingly, the Litigation Trust requests that this Court enter the form of order submitted with this Motion.

Dated: August 29, 2011.
